

Missing in Action: 12 Stories (Paperback)

By Ed Ifkovic

Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Novelist Richard Yates (Revolutionary Road) once wrote in a celebratory letter to the author: Your strength as a writer is creating a deceptively quiet chronicle of harsh events. This collection of twelve disparate short stories reinforces Yates succinct observation, a collection of published and unpublished fiction that explores a wide range of human experience captured through Ifkovic's vision. In such stories as Miss Connecticut and Love, the author probes the life of small-town America and the scandal that lies beneath the serene surface. Others, like Hedges, Gaetano, and Neighbors, are set against a backdrop of dying New England cities in which struggling families grapple with change they cannot understand. Yet others present fanciful plays on celebrity, as in Dyanna Ross and Superstar, characters who live in the shadows of those whose names are up in lights. Cleopatra and Missing in Action move the reader back to the years following the long and painful Vietnam War-and its devastating legacy. In Emilie a troubled woman unearths an unknown letter from Emily Dickinson and it redefines her life. In Observance a lost man finds himself...
