

Jury Party: Taking Responsible Charge of Our Government (Paperback)

By S Roy Johnson

Juryparty.Org, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This book presents a new way of thinking about politics. Millions of Americans are disillusioned with the entrenched two-party system that dominates government and politics in America. The Democrat and Republican parties are factually private organizations with agendas often never revealed to the broad public, but which too often serve their own private and monetary interests at the expense of the legitimate concerns of the nation and its people. The alternatives - existing third parties - are based on narrowly defined philosophies. But Americans are more flexible than this - we want good governance without the ideological limitations. This book proposes a political party and movement entirely focused on providing good, rational governance without bias or reliance on liberal, conservative, or any other ideology or agenda. The Jury Party is based on the most trusted institution the world has seen - the simple, common jury - and the party's broad aim is to create a government that can finally be trusted. This book describes a way to achieve real democracy by enabling the people themselves to take responsible charge of the issues...
