Writers On The Edge: 22 Writers Speak About Addiction and Dependency (Paperback)

By -

Loving Healing Press, United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Writers On The Edge offers a range of essays, memoirs and poetry written by major contemporary authors who bring fresh insight into the dark world of addiction, from drugs and alcohol, to sex, gambling and food. Editors Diana M. Raab and James Brown have assembled an array of talented and courageous writers who share their stories with heartbreaking honesty as they share their obsessions as well as the awe-inspiring power of hope and redemption. Open to any piece in this collection, and the scalding, unflinching, overwhelming truths within will shine light on places most people never look. Anyone who reads this book, be they users or used, will put it down changed. And when they raise their eyes from the very last page, the world they see may be redeemed, as well. --Jerry Stahl, author of Permanent Midnight Writers On The Edge is a thoughtful compendium of first-person narratives by writers who have managed to use their despair to create beauty. A must-read for anyone in the recovery field. --Leonard Buschel, Founder, Writers In Treatment CONTRIBUTORS: Frederick Steven Barthelme, Kera...
