

Twenty Twenty-Four (Paperback)

By Robert Durward

Robert Durward, United Kingdom, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. In the late 1940s, George Orwell took an inspired look at post-war Europe and gave us his chilling novel Nineteen Eighty-Four. It is now time to look into the future again.As it turned out, when 1984 did come around, most people were busy fiddling with Rubik s cubes or watching Torvill and Dean win gold at Sarjevo. However, the dark forebodings of Orwell s vision were almost upon us.We now have many of the things experienced by Winston Smith - constantly being watched on CCTV, GPS that track you, social media that can rapidly become a frenzied and personal hate-storm - but other even more nasty stuff is coming down the track. Robert Durward combines front line experience with historical events and current affairs - from Magna Carta to Brexit - to produce an Orwellian forecast of life in 2024.Are we heading for financial Armageddon? Will Donald Trump kill or cure America? Will the return of the far-Right lead to fascism in Europe? Will militant Islam overwhelm the weak West?2024 analyses past events and current affairs to develop an intriguing and compelling portrayal of the future....
