

Paranormal Bath (Paperback)

By Malcolm Cadey

Amberley Publishing, United Kingdom, 2010. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Join Malcolm Cadey on this heart-stopping ghost walk around the ancient city of Bath. Read about the pub with a deceased barmaid who simply refuses to leave, a Grey Lady in the Theatre Royal, a poltergeist in the Garrick's Head pub and a man in a black hat at the Assembly Rooms. Bath is one of the few British cities which may justifiably be called beautiful. It is also one of the most haunted of British cities. Bath is an ancient place and, at the height of its fashionable popularity in the eighteenth century, it was almost the country's alternative capital and the scene of social intrigues and skulduggery of the sort that its ghosts seem to reflect. With chilling eyewitness accounts, this fascinating collection of stories will inspire visitors and residents alike.
