Sunstone Press, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.These authentic stories that focus on cowboy life, past and present are historic and rich with unforgettable characters. There s Totto, who is reluctantly pulled into a mysterious treasure hunt that brings a startling revelation. There s Boy, who discovers that sometimes the people we come to love most are the ones we know nothing about. There s romance and humor too in several delightful tales. And then there s a mini novel of a lone cowboy who has the surprise of his life on the most beloved of holidays, a surprise that changes everything. Each story has truth at its core and powerful emotion in its depths that linger long after the last page is read. * * * * After returning to the family farm to retire, Elaine Kavanaugh Jones embarked on a new occupation: cow hand. Feeding, birthing, caring for young calves and elderly animals became an almost full time job. But a greater appreciation for the animals came about. Understanding their habits, feelings and attitudes toward humans brought about this collection of inspirational stories.
